

Kyorin University Admission Policy

Undergraduate

We accept students who understand and have the desire to strive to achieve this University's concepts and aims. Students will possess the qualities listed below.

(1) Ideal Image and Qualities

(1-1) High ethical outlook and rich humanity, fundamental capability to participate actively as an adult in society

(1-2) Positive attitude to communication, ability to appreciate others' ideas and convey them appropriately

(1-3) Flexibility of thought and curiosity, through free use of analytical and linguistic skills

(1-4) Broad, international outlook with a spirit of cooperation in global and local society

(2) Study Outcomes

We seek students with the following knowledge, skills and potential necessary for completing the requirements of our Diploma and Curriculum Policies.

(2-1) Necessary basic academic ability in terms of knowledge, expression and skills

(2-2) Ability to express and communicate ideas appropriately

(2-3) Ability to identify problems and consider them from multiple points of view

(2-4) Interest in a wide range of topical matters, willingness to contribute to society

(2-5) Respect for others' opinions, willingness to communicate concerning one's own opinions

(3) Student Selection

To select students who fit our undergraduate educational concepts and aims, the following methods are used.

(3-1) Regular Written Exam

Combined assessment of Kyorin exam scores, school reports, etc.

(3-2) National Center Exam

Combined assessment of National Center exam scores, school reports, etc.

(3-3) Exam for Overseas Students

Combined assessment as above.

(3-4) Others

	Depending on the Faculty or department, admission by recommendation, AO exam, exam for returnees, exam for mature students
Graduate, Master Course	We accept students who understand and have the desire to strive to achieve the Graduate School's concepts and aims. Students will possess the qualities listed below. (1) Ideal Image and Qualities (1-1) Ambition for Specialized Professional Work Desire to gain advanced knowledge and skills to qualify as a specialist professional (1-2) Progress in Problem Solving Academic approach to theory, practice and strategy. Ability in analysis and elucidation of problems for practical activation of research results (1-3) Concern for Globalization, Interdisciplinary Research and Social Contribution Interest in international events, involvement in wide-ranging problem solving, determination to contribute from an interdisciplinary academic standpoint (2) Research Outcomes We seek students with the following knowledge, skills and potential necessary for completing the requirements of our Diploma and Curriculum Policies. (2-1) Specialist knowledge and skills in research-related fields (2-2) Desire and potential to gain skills of identifying and processing problems (2-3) Awareness of the theories behind the chosen research, ability to explain and respond to questions (2-4) Independent thought together with a spirit of cooperation, determination to deepen mutual understanding (2-5) Perseverance in uncompromising research (3) Student Selection To select students who fit the graduate schools' educational concepts and aims, the following methods are used. (3-1) Regular Selection Combined assessment by examination in the specialist subject, language exam, essay, interview, etc. (3-2) Special Selection for Mature Students

	Combined assessment of mature applicants' personal qualities by essay in the specialist subject, language exam, essay, interview, academic record, etc. (3-3) Others Special selection for overseas students, overseas volunteers, etc.
Graduate, Doctoral Course	We accept students who understand and have the desire to strive to achieve the Graduate School's concepts and aims. Students will possess the qualities listed below. (1) Ideal Image and Qualities (1-1) Ambition for Specialized Professional Work Desire to gain advanced knowledge and skills to qualify as a specialist professional and to foster further achievements in the field (1-2) Progress in Problem Solving Academic approach to theory, practice and strategy. Ability in analysis and elucidation of problems for practical activation of research results (1-3) Concern for Globalization, Interdisciplinary Research and Social Contribution Interest in international events, involvement in wide-ranging problem solving, determination to contribute from an interdisciplinary academic standpoint (2) Research Outcomes We seek students with the following knowledge, skills and potential necessary for completing the requirements of our Diploma and Curriculum Policies. (2-1) Specialist knowledge and skills in research-related fields (2-2) Desire and potential to gain skills of identifying and processing problems (2-3) Awareness of the theories behind the chosen research, ability to explain and respond to questions (2-4) Independent thought together with a spirit of cooperation, determination to deepen mutual understanding (2-5) Perseverance in uncompromising research (3) Student Selection To select students who fit our educational concepts and aims, the following methods are used. (3-1) Regular Selection

Combined assessment by examination in the specialist subject, language exam, essay, interview, etc.

(3-2) Special Selection for Mature Students

Combined assessment of mature applicants' personal qualities by essay in the specialist subject, language exam, essay, interview, academic record, etc.

(3-3) Others

Special selection for overseas students, overseas volunteers, etc.